LOUISVILLE, KY.:
SATURDAY MORNING—MARCH 9, 1861.

FIENDISH.—We learn from the Salem (Ind.) Times that an inhuman wretch in an adjoining county to Washington deliberately plotted the following by which to put his wife to death. It seems that to accomplish his hellish work, it was necessary to employ his own son, a small boy, to assist him. He set his fence on fire, and instructed his little son to perpetrate the deed. After he set the fence on fire, he sent the little boy to the house after his (the boy's) mother, to come and put the fire out, while he (the father) secured himself in the woods near by, telling the boy before this, that while his mother was engaged in extinguishing the fire, to approach her from behind and set her clothes on fire, which he did, and before she was aware, her clothes were in a blaze, burning them entirely off, and of course burning her to death. The Times does not state that the inhuman wretch has been arrested.

THEATER.—We confess that, prepared as we were to witness the success of a debutante, we were totally surprised to discover such an amount of talent as was exhibited by Miss Jennie Hight last evening. Her Esmeralda, though gracefully performed, was thoroughly eclipsed by her personations in the Protean Farcie. We have seen "A Day in Paris" performed by all the leading comedy ladies of the country, but we have rarely seen it better, and seldom, indeed, so well acted by any of them. Jennie absolutely dazzled us with good taste, fine effect and graceful ease of her personations. Never since the days of Placide have we so enjoyed the theater as last evening. The fair Jennie has talent of a very high order, and it will be cruel to confine her hereafter to the dance. Despite the weather, the audience was very large, and we heard but one opinion—wonder at the fair beneficiary's capacity, and gratification for her success.

ITEMICAL.—Be sure reader, that when we have to resort to the weather for a paragraph, that we are pushed for an item, or the weather was exceedingly bad. Both conditions are in force. Yesterday was exceedingly unpleasant, the high wind and dust of the day being intensely disagreeable, and the rain succeeding, excessively damp, while the item makers seemed to have utterly subsided. Items were as scarce last night as rain was abundant.

WANTED BELOW.—H. H. McManus, who was recently arrested in this city with his mistress, on suspicion of having stolen a quantity of silver ware, found in their possession, and who was released on bail, was yesterday arrested on a requisition from the Governor of Tennessee, by officer Dyer, of Memphis, who identifies the plate as having been stolen from a house at Memphis.

QUICK REAST.—The numerous consumers of Dr. Thomas A. Hurley's quick yeast will be in mind that he has removed his drug store and yeast depot, from Market street to Green, between Sixth and north side. Hurley's quick yeast is given up, by all who have used it, to be the best in use for making light rolls, biscuits, puddings, buckwheat cakes, pastry, &c. These tight tins, it will, no doubt, be a good thing to raise the wind. Try it.

CITY COURT.—The following business was before Judge Johnston yesterday: E. P. Barbour was permitted to practice as an attorney in the City Court. Charles Holback, misdeemer; bail in $100 for three months. Jacob Strader and Peter Smith were fined for misdeemeanors, the former $15 and the latter $10. Charles Calhoun, charged with swindling, gave bail for his appearance in $500.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.—Herziah Bernard, a gunsmith of Chaplin, Nelson county, shot both his hands on last Thursday. Mr. Bernard had his hands over the muzzle of the gun, and carelessly let his foot drop upon the hammer, which caused its discharge. He has a family who depend upon his labors for their subsistence, says the Bardstown Gazette.

LOUISVILLE SONNETAO'S PORT.—We are glad to see that the Louisville Sunday's Post, (German), edited by our talented friend Mr. Buechler, enters upon its second year with the next issue. The Post is an excellent literary paper, and we doubt not, a great favorite with our German friends.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—We learn from the Lafayette Courier that George W. Root, an estimable young man employed as a freight train brakeman on the Wahab Valley road, fell between the cars at Attica, on Tuesday night, and was crushed to death.

THE CYCLOPHEA.—Owing to the illness of Miss Kate McEvoy, this charming entertainment was postponed last evening, but will-to-night be open for the last time, at Mozart Hall. The lady vocalists will sing the Star Spangled Banner.

John W. Ray, of Jeffersville, has been elected Director of the Southern Indiana State Prison, in place of S. H. Buskirk, whose term has expired. The Board now consists of G. F. Cookery, Thomas M. Brown, and J. W. Ray.

ANOTHER RESIGNATION.—The secession movement is said to have reached even Lieutenant-General Scott's staff. Lieutenant-Colonel Lay, of Virginia, Aid de Camp, is reported to have sent in his resignation on Saturday.

John S. Naylor has received the formal appointment of private secretary to the President, and J. M. Hay as assistant secretary. Both are from Illinois.

DISPATCHES RECEIVED BY THE DEPARTMENT FROM MAJOR ANDERSON.—The Montgomery Confederacy notices the fact that the majority of the soldiers enlisted in Montgomery are clerks.

THE SPRING STYLING.—Silk and cassimere dress has an introduced this morning at Craig's, corner Main and Fourth streets.

Mr. J. A. Calvert, Esq., has become associated in the editorial conduct of the Bardstown Gazette.

Alex. Craig introduces the spring styles of silk and cassimere dress has this morning.

The introduction of spring styles silk and cassimere dress has taken place at Craig's this morning.

This afternoon the Cyclorama will be exhibited for the benefit of the families and dead.

CON.—Why is a lany dog like a gradual ascent? Because he is a slow pup—a slope up.

Mr. Wright, of Adams Express Co., has our thanks for Cincinnati and other Eastern papers.

The News.

....The Southern Confederacy favor Atlanta, Ga., as the capital of the Southern Confederacy.

Judge Douglas has expressed the opinion that, in case of war, St. Louis, Louisville and New Orleans would be the first cities to suffer.

The Atlanta (Ga.) Confederacy urges the farmers in the South to plant grain. It says that they are able to contend against anything but famine, and adds that a non-intercourse measure between Kentucky and Tennessee will probably pass.

Mr. Crawford, one of the three Commissioners from the Southern Confederacy, appointed to negotiate with the Government of the United States for the transfer of the public property, arrived in Washington on Tuesday. He will not announce his mission to the Government until the arrival of his colleagues, who are expected in a few days. It is supposed that Mr. Lincoln will decline all conference with these gentlemen.

....Disputes to New York, from Montgomery, universally concede war to be inevitable. The Southern Congress was engaged in organizing a standing army of ten thousand men. Eight thousand men, at once placed on a movable war footing.

....The New Orleans Picayune states that a precedent exists for the South to regard any attempt at coercion as a declaration of war, by the act of Congress, in 1845, declaring in preamble that "war exists by the act of Mexico."

....Charles T. Jones, of Indiana, Chief Clerk in the Register's office of the Treasury Department for the last eight years, has resigned, and is going to Montgomery to accept office from Clayton, under the New Confederacy.

....The New Orleans True Delta, speaking of Lincoln's inaugural and its effects, says: Out of all this what good may accrue must be a wise and prescient individual who foretells; but our opinion is, that, sooner or later, the abhoritions of Lincoln and Montgomery will be brushed away, and the true democracy of the nation, enlightened by the past, will resume the administration of their country, purify its consciences, and do justice to all sections, and with a united front again place this nation in that commanding position before the world from which villainous conspirators for the moment have degraded it.

....The Hopkinson Press puts up the name of the Hon. A. D. Rogers for Congress. Mr. Rogers is a Union man.

....The director of the Philadelphia minicommunity that the whole coinage for the year 1860 of the New Orleans branch may be declared illegal tender, the institution having taken possession of by the State of Louisiana, and, in not making rights of its operations to the Philadelphia mint, ceasing practically, to be a branch mint of the United States. The director also suggests that the dies be recovered from New Orleans. The bullion belonging to the United States held by the New Orleans mint is $401,680. The New Orleans coining may be known by the stamp O on the reverse of each piece.

....The Georgia people think that if they have got to pay their own postal tax, they must economize. The Savannah Republicans say:

....For a time, at least, we do not see how the country post offices can be maintained. Except on main lines, where the large mails have necessarily to be carried, one postoffice will be closed. The post offices in the country, probably by the extent of our mail facilities, will be declared illegal tender, the institution having taken possession of by the State of Louisiana, and, in not making rights of its operations to the Philadelphia mint, ceasing practically, to be a branch mint of the United States. The director also suggests that the dies be recovered from New Orleans. The bullion belonging to the United States held by the New Orleans mint is $401,680. The New Orleans coining may be known by the stamp O on the reverse of each piece.

....The Georgia people think that if they have got to pay their own postal tax, they must economize. The Savannah Republicans say:

....HARRY HARRISON. By JOHN T. IRVING. E. M. DOW.

We have received a copy of this very entertaining book through our friend, Frank Madden. The author is a nephew of the celebrated Washington Irving, and has a great deal of the quaint raciness in style and geniality that marked his uncle. The characters are well delineated and are sufficiently diversified to set one another off.

The plot is well sustained, though it carries with it the interest of the reader, engrossing, to the conclusion.

We feel especially disposed to add an additional recommendation in the very hand some manner in which it has been published. Thick paper and clean, beautiful type, with an exterior to suit, making it a model for a library.

The book is to be had at Frank Madden's, on Third street, between Market and Jefferson. We cordially commend it as worthy of perusal.

CHARLES SALISBURY, THE ACTOR.—Many of our citizens are familiar with the name of Charles Salisbury, the comedian. He is a son of the late Smith H. Salisbury, of Buffalo, and has long been notorious, alike for his practical jokes and for the wild, wayward life he led. We are glad to see that a second chapter of his history has begun. The New York Christian Advocate and Journal gives a long and interesting account of his connection, and of the public how he made it in a prayer meeting of the Central M. E. Church, of Newark, New Jersey. It seems that he went to Newark a week or two ago to play an engagement. His name was recognized on the play-bill by a sister he had not seen for years, and who is the wife of a Methodist clergyman in that city. She waited for him at the door of the theater on Saturday night and took him home with her, and, through her Christian influence, he was led to Christ. We sincerely trust that Salisbury does not intend thus another of his escapades.

....The vacant Brigadier Generalship is narrowed down between Col. Sumner and Major Anderson. Col. S. is entitled to be by the regular line of promotion, and is strongly urged for the position by army officers. The Kentuckians at Washington are anxious, however, that Major Anderson should be appointed, in view of his services in Charleston harbor. Such an appointment would be in striking contrast with the last occupant of the generalship, the traitor Twiggs. Major Anderson's nomination was before the Cabinet for confirmation.

....The Secession Commissioners, who are at Washington, have determined to be in no haste in presenting their credentials to the President, and have therefore deferred it until next week. They regard the whole master as a question of form, anticipating no official recognition from the Administration.

....Watson J. Smith, of Indiana, has been appointed to an eighteen hundred dollar clerkship in the Interior Department by Secretary Smith, rendered vacant by the resignation of Goddard Bailey. John A. Jones of Tazewell county, was to-day appointed Statistical Clerk of the State Department, at a salary of two thousand dollars per annum.

....Two members of Congress, from Tennessee, Messrs. Nelson and Maynard, have visited the President, and had an interview, which was satisfactory and pleasant.

....It is doubtless true that Gov. Houston, of Texas, has resigned. It would indicate that Old Sam Jacobs is for the Union.

....General Scott, it is said, will endeavor to have two regiments added to his, and is to be in the case. Lastly, the salary of $4,500.

....ANEDENTS OF THE LAW OF PATENTS.—The patent law, as passed by Congress at the very last hour of the session, makes radical changes. Patents are to run seven years instead of fourteen. A Board of Appeal from the decisions of examiners of patents is provided, in order to relieve the commissioners of the decision of the commissioners to the Judge of the District Court, as he has heretofore been in the case. Lastly, the salary of Comissioners is increased from $3,000 to $4,500.

....ANOTHER RESIGNATION.—The secession movement is said to have reached even Lieutenant-General Scott's staff. Lieutenant-Colonel Lay, of Virginia, Aid de Camp, is reported to have sent in his resignation on Saturday.

....John S. Naylor has received the formal appointment of private secretary to the President, and J. M. Hay as assistant secretary. Both are from Illinois.

....DISPATCHES RECEIVED BY THE DEPARTMENT FROM MAJOR ANDERSON.—The Montgomery Confederacy notices the fact that the majority of the soldiers enlisted in Montgomery are clerks.

....THE SPRING STYLING.—Silk and cassimere dress has an introduced this morning at Craig's, corner Main and Fourth streets.

Mr. J. A. Calvert, Esq., has become associated in the editorial conduct of the Bardstown Gazette.

....The Union men at Washington are cheered by the Charleston Mercury's article on Lincoln's inaugural. They say that it indicates that the Southerners will not pre-cipitate masters. The following are extracts from it:

....But still we would say to our Southern people, keep cool and hide your time. The Southern State is no further involved in this matter.

....It has been transferred to the shoulders of the Government of the Confederate States of America, whether rightly or not it is too late to discuss. It is entirely out of policy and war strategy. We do not profess to be actually cognizant of the plans of President

....It is to be war there must be a plan of policy for the campaign. This must originate from the hands of the Government.

....We have now nothing to loss—but time everything to gain."

....If there is to be war there must be a plan of policy for the campaign. This must originate from the hands of the Government.
